

Mainstreet acquires Toronto, Calgary buildings

Mainstreet Equity Corp. has paid $17.5-million for two more properties in Toronto and Calgary, the real estate company said yesterday. Mainstreet of Calgary bought the 218-unit Toronto residential building for $16.7-million. The purchase is Mainstreet's second in the Toronto area, as it bought a Mississauga building earlier in the year. The company also bought an 18-unit Calgary building for $850,000.

Globe & Mail

September, 2003